Tax Measure

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 28.—Congress today passed the task of raising $1,000,000,000 of additional revenue needed to run the government during the coming year. This enormous sum is called for in estimates furnished by Secretary McAdoo putting the cost of the war for the year at $1,735,807,000 exclusive of loans to the allies. Should extension of credit to the allies be continued at the rate now prevailing, $4,500,000,000 of new revenue would be required, bringing the grand total of war expenditures for the year up to more than $15,000,000,000.

Ways and means of meeting the new revenue requirements is to be worked out by the house ways and means and the senate finance committees to which the estimates were submitted. It seemed to be generally agreed today that of the total of $7,000,000,000 about $2,000,000,000 would be raised by taxation and the balance of issuance of bonds and treasury certificates of indebtedness.

The senate finance committee today continued work toward revising the war tax bill in the light of the new estimates. It is expected that the bill which now totals about $1,670,670,000 will be raised about $234,000,000 chiefly through the imposition of increased excess profits, and possibly tobacco taxes. This would leave a balance of about $5,000,000,000 of the new expenses to be raised by bonds, for which authorization would be made in the tax measure not including the additional $2,000,000,000 in bonds proposed by Secretary McAdoo for further loans to the allies. There is much sentiment in the senate committee to have the new bonds in serial form and at 4 per cent interest.

MORE TROUBLE IS EXPECTED IN CHINA

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London, July 28.—The outlook in China is very serious and a complete rupture between the north and south seems inevitable, according to a dispatch from Shanghai to the Times. Proclamation refusing to recognize the government at Peking has been issued in Kwang-Tung, a southern province.

An European Port, July 28.—Another American contingent has safely arrived and disembarked.

The American troops arrived by the same steamer whereon Kermit Roosevelt, his wife and child traveled. When the ship was alongside the vessel Friday the men were in high spirits and frequently shouted. "Are we down here?" which was answered with a roaring "No" given with great enthusiasm.

Representatives of the general staff watched the disembarkation. There was no civil demonstration. Only a few spectators knew of the landing. These cheered and the troops cheered back. The men entrained quickly and left for their new quarters. A signal company remained at the port for some hours and these were the only representatives of the contingent which the public saw.

NEW OFFICERS IN THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE ARE WINNING GREAT PRAISE

(Associated Press Telegram)
With the American Forces in France, Friday, July 27.—The hard training which the American troops are now undergoing is bringing out a marked degree of efficiency in young officers who recently joined the army, having undergone training at Plattsburg or other camps. Regular army officers are particularly struck by the enthusiasm with which these men have plunged into their work. They declare that the quality of these men sets at rest any doubt as to the high standard of leadership in America's vast new army.

The young officers have adapted themselves very quickly to the new conditions met here in training with French instructors, and seem to appreciate fully the most minute details. They are exceedingly earnest in their work and never tire. They have won unstinted praise from older officers who have seen long years of military service. The colonel of one of the old-line American regiments, standing today watching the work of one of his battalions in which many reserve officers are serving, exclaimed:

"They are simply splendid. I have never seen a finer class of young officers anywhere. With very little preliminary guidance they have shown themselves capable of taking over entire divisions of the battalion. They have brought to their work not only much of the technique of professional soldiers, but the high morale and enthusiasm of men who have been attracted to military service by natural inclination."

The colonel further expressed what seems to be the opinion of most of the officers already here, that as many of these officers from training camps as it is possible to spare should be sent to France at the earliest possible date to undergo intensive training in the actual war zone, and also to have experience in the trenches so that they will be fitted to act as instructors to the American troops as they are landed. There is a feeling that these young officers should not be held in America until the regiments to which it is proposed to assign them are actually formed, but should come in advance of their regiments so that they can direct the final training of their men here.

Under this plan a certain number of officers would be assigned more or less permanently to training duty in America, and men of the various regiments would pass through their hands for drill in the rudiments of soldiering, such as the manual of arms, ordinary marching, tactics and general sitting-up instructions. They would then cross the ocean and be regimented on this side from among the officers who already had undergone a course of study and training in the overhauling rules and practices of modern European warfare.

The men of the expeditionary forces have settled down into the routine of the new training very quickly and are progressing as rapidly as their officers expected. They are up at 5 o'clock in the morning and reach the training ground not later than 7:45, drilling and digging without interruption until 11:30. After half an hour for lunch and another hour for rest they drill again from 1 until 4:30 o'clock. The men lunch in the field, having sandwiches and other cold rations prepared for them before they leave camp each morning. The French soldiers who are training the Americans rest from 11 to 2 o'clock. They have field kitchens and eat a hot mid-day meal.

As was to be expected the American soldiers have taken naturally to bomb-throwing. They like that part of the daily program better than any other. When they are not hurling dummy metal missiles they may be seen practicing with heavy stones, dummy shell-holes having been constructed as targets. The Americans are wonderfully accurate and the French instructors are amazed at their skill so easily acquired. This, of course, is due largely to baseball training, although bombs are thrown with a straight-arm swing quite different from the elbow-motion of the baseball pitcher.

OFFICERS AGAIN RESTORE ORDER; TWO WHITES DEAD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chester, Pa., July 28.—State police aided by local patrolmen and volunteer guards were in complete control of the situation here today after a renewal of the race rioting in several sections of the city yesterday and last night. The list of colored victims in hospital, increased by four as a result of the sixth outbreak of the week which included three attacks in several parts of the town on negroes who ventured abroad.

The casualties are now placed officially at two white men killed and more than 100 whites and negroes injured. A half dozen of the injured are in critical condition and nearly 100 rioters are under heavy bail.

Extra precautions were to be taken against further mob violence today during the funeral of William McKinney. The death of McKinney, who was stabbed by negroes Tuesday night, is blamed for the week of rioting.

Joseph McCann, the other victim, will be buried tomorrow. The 40 saloons and amusement places probably will remain closed until after the funerals. Colored workmen are being escorted to work by guards.

Of Chester's 81,738 residents, 20,000 are negroes, many of whom have been brought here recently from the south.

Railroads Say Agreement to

May Delay Traffic On Transcontinental Shipping
Via Chicago

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, July 28.—The strike of switchmen, belonging to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, which was called yesterday, became effective at 6 a. m. today on 19 railroads entering the Chicago district. At that hour it was impossible to say representatives both of the switchmen and the railroads declared, whether all of the 2,500 men belonging to the order would go out, as the men report for work in shifts.

The first report came from the Van Huren street yards of the Chicago and Alton, where about 200 men failed to report for work.

Of the 6,500 switchmen employed in the Chicago switching district, according to the general managers' commission, 2,500 belong to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, 2,500 to the Switchmen's Union of America, and 1,500 are either non-union or belong to some other labor organization.

James Murdock, vice president of the B. R. T. A., in stating the grievances of the men, said they decided to strike after certain rules long contended for had been denied. The rules in dispute include the question of preference being given to yardmen in promotion to yardmasters or assistant yardmasters; the question of obtaining a rule which would prevent the companies from reinstating men justly discharged in disregard of the rights of other loyal yardmen; and the matter of giving preference to members of the brotherhood in employing yardmen.

The railroad managers assert that to agree to the demands of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen would establish a closed shop, which would cause a strike of members of the Switchmen's Union of America.

All the police of the city have been held in reserve by Chief of Police Schuetter, who has placed his men at strategic points and is prepared to rush them to any point where violence is threatened.

The general managers' conference committee representing all the railroads affected as soon as the strike was called, declared an embargo on all shipments of perishable goods and live stock and notified shippers that it would be in force until the strike is settled.

Although the strike technically is local, it will have national scope to the extent that it may delay traffic on all trans-continental roads passing through Chicago.

The railroad managers' conference committee late in the morning announced that more than 25 per cent of the normal force was at work in the switching yards. All of the roads reported that their passenger service was little affected.

Announcement was made at the headquarters of the switchmen that 98 per cent of six thousand switchmen employed by the roads quit work.

Freight traffic in the Chicago switching district was seriously hampered today.

Representatives of the railroad managers' conference committee asserted that more than 25 per cent of a working force was operating and that no serious results were feared.

The employees declared that full 98 per cent of the railroads switching force had quit work.

No violence was reported through the morning.

GERMANS SEND WOMEN INTO BATTLE AGAINST SLAV TROOPS IN THE EAST

Petrograd, July 28.—When the Russian woman's battalion, known officially as the "Command of Death," went into action against the Germans near Smorgon, July 25, they captured a number of women from whom it was learned for the first time that German women were also fighting on the battlefield in western Russia.

Ten wounded heroines of the women's battalion arrived in Petrograd today leaving their commander, Vera Butchkaroff, and Marya Skrydloff, a daughter of Admiral Skrydloff, former commander of the Baltic fleet and minister of marine, in a hospital at Vitebsk.

Interviewed, the women said it was reported that of the 200 of the command who reached the front only 50 remained. Twenty were killed, eight were taken prisoners, and all the rest were wounded.

"Several times," said one wounded girl, "we attacked the Germans. Especially memorable was our attack at Novos Passky Wood near Smorgon, where the enemy hearing the voices of girls lost their nerve. The result was that many of them were killed, wounded, or taken prisoner. Among the prisoners were a few women, from whom we learned for the first time that German women also were fighting."

"We did not feel the slightest fear for our personal safety. Our passion was to serve the fatherland. We advanced gallantly against the foe with laughter and song, our only unpleasant sentiments being when we first came to the corpses. Once, when replying to the enemy's severe rifle and machine-gun fire, we discovered to our amazement that all our men comrades in the neighboring trenches had treacherously fled, leaving us a handful of women—to face the enemy alone."

BIDS OPENED FOR 109 MILES OF STATE ROADS

The biggest contract will be for building five miles of the Youngstown-Conneaut road in Ashtabula county.

PARIS RAIDED BY GERMAN PLANES

Berlin, July 28. Via London.—German airplanes last night dropped bombs on the railway stations and military establishments in Paris. The official statement announcing the raid on the French capital says that all the German airmen returned.

Paris has been free from all raids since January, 1916. On the 29th of that month the capital was visited by Zeppelins which dropped about a dozen bombs, killing 24 persons and injuring 27. The raid at that time lasted about one minute and a half.

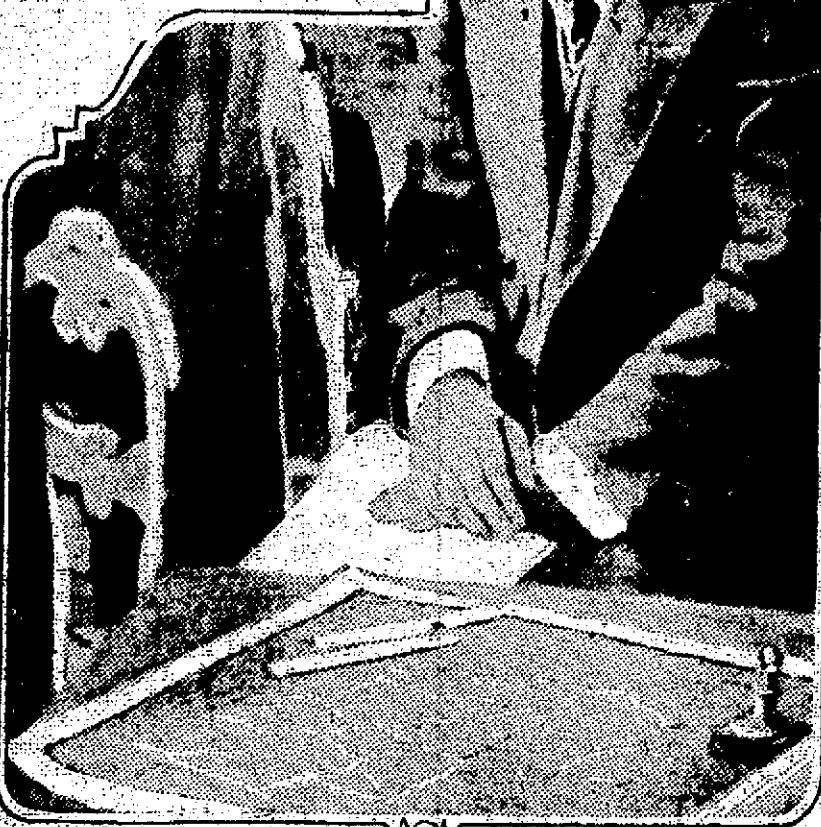

SENATE TO VOTE ON NATIONWIDE DRY BILL EARLY IN WEEK

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, O., July 28.—The senate will vote early next week to submit a federal prohibition amendment to the states, and will include a provision limiting the time of penalty for adoption by the states to six years, according to United States Senator Harding, who will deliver a political address here today.

Following the disposal of the prohibition amendment the question of dealing with aliens and their exemption from military service will be taken up, the senator said.

It is already apparent that Premier Kerensky's rule of "blood and iron" is to have its effect in quelling the disorders that have threatened to disrupt the Russian armies and perhaps the Russian state. Kerensky is making the most of his dictatorship and will employ the most extreme measures to bring about a restoration of order.

With the aid of General Korniloff, Kerensky is applying the strong hand and there is now a hope that he may bring the nation through the troubles that have threatened it. He has shown that his command of the provisional government is to be supreme and he has won the complete support of the ministers he has gathered about him. It is unlikely that the workmen's and soldiers' committee will make further efforts to oppose him.

Treason, the distemper that has almost demoralized the Russian armies and has permitted the great gains of the foe in Galicia at a time when it seemed that the war machine was at its greatest strength, has been met with the death penalty, a measure that Kerensky has enacted with the sanction and support of all his ministers. The new premier has also established a censorship of all publications and brought about a suspension of those that have been adjudged guilty of spreading the sentiment of disloyalty among the people and the troops.

As a result of Kerensky's many quick and forceful actions the armies are already resuming something of their real fighting spirit and give promise of resisting the German attacks. General Korniloff, determined to rid his men of every trace of treason or cowardice has threatened to resign his command unless permitted to deal out the severest punishment. That he has Kerensky's support in this is seen in his recent artillery fire upon troops of his own that have shown treason and desertion.

Kerensky still faces questions of the greatest difficulty and there has already been suffered incalculable losses, but it is hoped in many quarters that the strong hand he is now employing will strengthen the people and the armies and prevent another collapse so appalling.

GERMANS SHOOT PRIEST; REFUSED TO GIVE EVIDENCE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Amsterdam, July 28.—Les Nouvelles of Maastricht, reports that one of the chiefs of the German espionage service in Belgium was assassinated last Friday at Lommel, Belgian Limburg. No trace of the assassin has been found. A reward of 3,000 marks has been offered in notices posted everywhere.

The newspaper also reports that seven Belgians were shot at Liege July 12, including the Swiss curate of St. Lambert's parish at Herstal, a Swiss living in the same parish and a commissioner named Lejeune. The priest is reported to have been deprived of food on three occasions for three days at a time in an attempt to compel him to speak, and his assistant was tortured for the same purpose. The Germans compelled them, the newspaper says, to drink a drug which affected their nerves but they refused to speak.

UNORDERED SOUTH; PREPARE CAMP

Ten Units Get Orders to Entrain For Cantonment at Montgomery

DATE OF DEPARTURE IS WITHHELD BY OFFICIALS

Whole Guard May Get Orders Within the Next Ten Days

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, O., July 28.—Move-ment of Ohio guard troops to the cantonment at Montgomery, Ala., is under way, according to official announcement made here today by United States army officers. Orders from Columbus last night reached 10 units made up of 2,000 men, to be prepared for movement on immediate notice. For military reasons the names of these organizations and the date of their departure will not be made known until they are safe at the Alabama camp.

The purpose in sending them south before the entire guard is to have service of the men in laying out the Ohio-West Virginia camp site.

A battalion of engineers will be included in the first detail to aid in this work.

Units from each complete regiment compose the detail. There are nine of these. The companies designated were selected because their muster records were "in the best shape." It means virtually that these companies made the best showing after federal inspection. In two or three instances, units that showed up excellently were not complete because they did not have three commissioned officers, as required.

Part of the big tract of land that the 25,000 odd troops from Ohio and West Virginia will occupy has been used as a military camp and the remainder of it has been given attention by details of officers already sent to get everything ready for the first body of troops. These will complete the site so that when the main body of the guard reaches Montgomery very little more will be required.

No statement was forthcoming as to the possible date of movement of the entire guard to the new camp. This probably will be kept more or less quiet out of respect for requests by the government that no mention be made of movement of soldiers. It was the unofficial view today that the order for movement of ten units will be followed within ten days by an order for movement of the whole guard, with organizations of other states on July 15 and for draft into federal service on August 5. The opinion prevailed that the guard will be established in its "last American camp" at Montgomery by that day.

GERMANY STILL IS SEEKING MEXICAN AID IN CONFLICT

Mexico City, July 28.—An article by Die Post of Berlin will be published here tomorrow saying that Mexico is the only country which has not yet been influenced by the allies and there ought not to be any difficulty in bringing Mexico to the side of the central powers. Mexico is one of the naturally richest countries in the world and these riches would be aided in development by Germany.

Commenting on the article TI Universal declares this is one of the lies for which Herr Von Eckhardt, German minister to Mexico, some day will be asked to leave Mexico.

AMERICAN VESSEL SUNK; CREW SAVED

Plymouth, England, July 28.—The American bark Carmela has been sunk by a submarine. The crew was landed in safety.

None of the bark's crew, which numbered 20 men, was injured. They will be sent to New York.

The Carmela was attacked at 6 o'clock this morning by a German submarine of small type. The undersea boat fired four shots at her and then the crew took to their boats.

The submarine ordered the bark's crew to go aboard the submarine and placing an armed guard over them proceeded to loot the ship's store of coffee and bacon. At the end of the second trip the Germans were interrupted by the approach of patrol vessels which rescued the bark's crew, the submarine was not seen again.

TEUTONIC AIM IS TO CLEAR AUSTRIA OF ENEMY TROOPS

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, July 28.—The Austro-German march through eastern Galicia and toward the Bukovina border is going on unchecked, so far as latest reports indicate. Apparently the Teutonic purpose is to give the retreating Russian forces no pause until Austrian territory has been completely cleared of them, if the achievement is possible.

In the west while there is no corresponding allied advance, there is at least an absence of German progress. The crown prince is the aggressive force at present, as he has been for some time past, but his liberal sacrifices of troops are not gaining him any ground of consequence. Last night he met with a complete check in a renewal of his offensive on the Aisne front. The French lines were not penetrated in the whole field of the attack which took in a considerable sector of the Chemin Des Dames and Paris reports his losses as extremely heavy.

The British report a heavy fire from the German guns on the front near the Belgian border to the coast. Evidences accumulate that the Germans in probable anticipation of a British attack here are giving fire to the extent of their ability, when the British guns open up, apparently with the intention of counteracting preparations for a thrust from the British lines.

Reports from the Russian women's battalion that engaged in the fighting near Smorgon recently and was badly cut up in the battle, state that German women were found fighting in the German ranks. Some of these women were taken prisoner. Several shipping losses are reported. Among the lost vessels was the American bark Carmichael, 1378 tons, sunk by submarine shell fire, the crew of 20 men taking to the boats and landing safely. The Norwegian steamship Thorsdale, of 2200 tons gross was another.

Despatches from abroad announce the landing of another contingent of American troops at a European port.

GERMAN VESSELS UNDER U. S. FLAG; SOON IN SERVICE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Boston, July 28.—Two German steamships, the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, and Cincinnati were placed under the American flag at the Boston navy yard today. The Amerika, another German ship, will be commissioned Monday. The vessels have about 70 per cent of their complement, consisting of regular seamen and reserves and will be ready for service shortly, officials said.

Members of the fourth class naval reserve on duty with the patrol fleet in the first naval district were asked today to volunteer for the general service, in compliance with orders received at the Boston Navy Yard from Washington. The men are wanted, officials said, to make up the complement of transports, including several seized German ships which are being prepared for service. Officials had no orders as to the status of men who do not wish to enlist for the general service.

119 ELIGIBLES TO REPORT FIRST DAY FOR EXAMINATION

One hundred and nineteen draft eligibles in Newark city and Newark township will be ordered to report for examination the first day, according to members of the city draft board which went to work this morning on the master list which was received from the Columbus office of the provost marshal during the night.

Instructions of the provost marshal will be followed closely by members of the board said this afternoon. Twelve the number in Newark quota, 179, will be ordered to present themselves for examination. This means that 358 will be ordered to report in groups of 119. At the present time on one knows how many can be examined in a day but it is the belief of the board members that it will be impossible to dispose of 119 men each day.

Inasmuch as work was started only this morning on the official list, it will be several days before the notices are mailed. Those numbers applying to Newark must first be checked and the notices written from the local lists containing the serial numbers. This task will require several days. The work will be rushed as rapidly as accuracy will permit.

Announcement was made that Drs. Stagem, Mitchell and Davis would assist Dr. Knauss in making the medical examinations of the eligibles.

As the registrants have five days to report for examination after the notice to report is received and as the local board is unable to estimate how long it will take to prepare the notifications for mailing, the time of the first examination is problematical. It is not likely that the work will start before August 6 or 7.

FIRST EXAMS AUGUST 6

Granville, July 28.—First examinations of draft eligibles to furnish the county's quota in the new selective army, will be held here Monday morning, August 6th when 100 men will appear before the exemption board for physical and other examinations. This announcement was made this morning by C. D. Coons, executive officer of the county district board.

Prof. Coons interprets the instructions contained in the rules and regulations for the physical examination, included with the master list which was received this morning, as meaning that one-third of the eligibles may report the fifth day after the notices have been received, one-third the sixth day and one-third the seventh day. As the board was instructed to order 302 men for examination, the instructions will mean that 100 men will appear each day. Two physicians will assist Dr. Loveless the board's medical examiner.

The board is now working upon the list, making out the notification tion cards and these will be mailed as soon as possible. It is probable that the work will not be completed before Monday.

EXAMINATIONS ARE STARTED IN SOME DRAFT DISTRICTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, O., July 28.—Physical examinations of men called in the first selective draft started in a few districts in the state today and will be in full swing throughout Ohio by the first of next week.

Boards in number of districts are arranging to start as late as Wednesday. In Columbus all district boards will have central headquarters at the courthouse to prevent confusion among men, a large per cent of whom do not know their districts. This policy for cities having more than one district has been recommended by the state registration officials.

The second master list was sent out early today, following one mailed yesterday to each board, but boards are not required to have two lists before beginning work. The two lists were sent separately to prevent loss in mails.

The first thing now is physical examination of every man. Where there are defects certain to bar, examinations will be cut short. If a man has but one leg, one arm, or one eye, the full examination will not be necessary.

Interest at state headquarters now centers in the probable per cent of physically-qualified men. The governor requires double the number wanted from each district to report for examination, so it is taken to mean that 50 per cent of those examined will not be fit for service. This per cent may run far greater, as indicated in reports from many parts of the country where examinations already are under way. If the per cent is greater, districts expecting to examine only twice as many men as their quota may find they must examine three or four times as many. "The probable time it will take to complete the big task therefore is problematical."

HOLLWEG WANTED TO WITHDRAW BUT PLEDGE WAS GIVEN

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, July 28.—An article characterized as "difficult" but not impossible to doubt, regarding the origin of the war is published by the Times. The writer recalls a reference to the speech in the Reichstag last week of Hugo Haase, leader of the Socialist minority as reported in the Leipziger Volks Zeitung to the meeting July 5, 1914, as one of the things which must be explained before the origin of the war is fully understood.

According to the Times' informant this probably will become the most famous date of that fateful month. He says a meeting was held at Potsdam, those attending being the emperor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, Admiral von Tirpitz, General von Falkenhayn, Dr. William von Stumm, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Archduke Frederick of Austria, Count von Berchtold, Austrian foreign minister, Count Tisza, premier of Hungary, and General Hoetzendorf. They decided all the principal points of the Austrian ultimatum days later it was recognized that Russia probably would refuse to submit thereto and that war would result, but the meeting definitely decided to accept that consequence.

The emperor then went to Norway with the object, says the writer, of throwing dust into the eyes of the French and Russian governments. Later when it became known that England would not remain neutral Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg wished to withdraw but it was too late. Herr Haase's reference, adds the Times' informant, was well understood by the majority of his hearers for the subject was discussed in the Reichstag budget committee eight weeks previously and created a great sensation. The government was challenged to deny the story but did not.

In his address to the Reichstag Herr Haase attacked the government's home and foreign policy and demanded immediate peace negotiations, atonement for wrongs committed and the establishment of a Socialist republic.

USE LIBERTY BREAD

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 28.—"Liberty Bread" is the term to be encouraged by the food administration as applied to substitutes for wheat flour rather than the phrase, "War Bread," used in every other warring country. "The name 'war bread' gives the impression that there is something inferior about the bread made of substitutes for wheat," says an announcement.

Miss Mina Hohl of Hudson avenue went to Columbus yesterday where she is visiting Miss Margaret McAllister for a few days.

A VACATION TRIP ON A FREIGHT STEAMER

Via Northwestern Steamship Company's Steel Steamers

From CLEVELAND, OHIO, to GLADSTONE, MICHIGAN and Return, with Five-Hour Stop at Historic Mackinac Island. Six-Day Cruise

Round Trip, $37.75
(Children under 12, half fare)

Including meals and berth. No extras. The accommodations are fully up to the best passenger steamers. Each stateroom is an outside room, lighted by electricity, has running water and a double lower and single upper berth. The saloon is roomy and comfortable, a smoking and card room is convenient, and the large dining room extends the full width of the ship, with observation windows on each side that permit a perfect view of the passing scenery as one dines. A promenade deck extends completely around the ship—seven times around makes a mile.

THE TABLE

The meals are unusually good on the Lakeland. The galley is roomy and properly fitted out and is in charge of old and experienced chefs. Fresh fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, butter and meats are secured from our own stores in Gladstone and Cleveland. We buy only the best the market affords; but, it is of our fish that we are proudest. We have arranged with fishermen on Lake Erie and Lake Michigan, to pull their nets just before leaving time of the boats, so that our passengers may have fish just out of the water.

Round Trip, $37.75
(Children under 12, half fare)

The Steamer Lakeland, is a staunch steel freight steamer of the most modern design. She carries general merchandise on the up-trip, and flour from the Minneapolis and St. Paul mills on the down trip.

As the passenger business of this company is a by-product of their freight traffic, the steamers of this line do not require additional crews for the handling of passengers, thereby making it unnecessary to draft men from productive industries during the war.

FEATURES

A piano and victrola are maintained on the Lakeland for the pleasure of the passengers and dancing is indulged in every evening.

For those who desire to take trips while the boat is at Gladstone picnic lunches will be furnished.

Automobiles, motor-boats and sail boats can be obtained at Gladstone at moderate rates.

Steamer Lakeland, N. W. S. S. Co. Equipped with Wireless

Remember---$37.75 Covers Everything for the Six-Day Trip. Children Half Fare

This is one of the most delightful trips in the world. The steamer leaves Cleveland on sailing dates at 11:00 P. M. The Cruise takes the passenger through Lake Erie, the Detroit River, Lake St. Clair, The Flats, justly termed, "The Venice of America," and on up the beautiful St. Clair River, past Port Huron and through the St. Clair Rapids into Lake Huron, second largest body of fresh water in the world. Early morning finds the ship passing the bluffs of Thunder Bay and entering the Straits of Mackinac. A stop of five hours is made at historic Mackinac Island. Leaving the island at 6 P. M., the site of old Fort Michilimackinac on the mainland is quickly passed. Just across the Straits is St. Ignace, the spot where Marquette established his first mission. Past the Garden Islands and Beaver Island the ship goes in the night, and morning discovers the entrance to Green Bay. This is an entrancing sheet of water. On its west shore, and guarding the entrance to Little Bay de Noquet, is Escanaba, the great iron and lumber shipping port. Seven miles up the bay, and reached by a tortuous channel and protected by towering hills, is Gladstone, the northwest terminus of the Northwestern Steamship Company. This is the summer country par excellence. Hay fever is unknown, and the pine-laden ozone produces the most restful sleep. It is the fisherman's paradise. Trout abound in the swiftly flowing streams, while bass rise to the fly. Along the shallows of the Bay, pike and pickerel are so plentiful that large strings are caught from the docks on the Gladstone Bay front. Across the bay from Gladstone and quickly reached is Maywood, the most beautiful resort on Lake Michigan. Bathing, picnicking, sailing, motoring, and fishing keeps one busy while the ship is discharging and taking on cargo. A dance is given on shore the night the boat is at Gladstone. Just a few minutes street car ride from Gladstone is Escanaba, a city of 20,000 people.

The Lakeland leaves Gladstone at 3 P. M. the second afternoon and passes through the Straits of Mackinac, the St. Clair and Detroit Rivers by daylight, arriving in Cleveland at 3 P. M. the sixth day.

This Will Make a Vacation Trip Long to be Remembered

Make reservations early. The boat leaves Shepherd's Dock, 1078 West 11th St., Cleveland, at 11 P. M., Monday, July 2; Wednesday, July 11; Friday, July 20; Sunday, July 29; Tuesday, Aug. 7; Thursday, Aug. 16; Saturday, Aug. 25. Passengers may come aboard at 9 P. M.

War Gods Favor Entente Allies As Third Year Of the World Conflict for Democracy Closes

FINANCES OF FRANCE ARE UNSHAKEN BY THREE YEARS OF WAR, SAYS PARIS EXPERT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Paris, July 28.—French finances have been unshaken by the war in the opinion expressed to The Associated Press by Charles Gide, of the University of Paris, an eminent authority on economic questions, discussing the outlook at the beginning of the fourth year of the conflict.

"France," said M. Gide, "has spent about 70,000,000,000 on three years' military effort. Yet in the thirty-six months of hostilities the French people are investigating the short-term treasury bonds as they are issued, and they are sold at the rate of about 1,000,000,000 a month.

"As evidence of the excellence of French credit," M. Gide pointed to the co-operation of the United States, which, he said, "brings formidable aid to France and her allies. This," he continued, "not only removes all doubt concerning the result of the war from a military standpoint, but relieves the financial situation by diminishing the drain upon French gold.

"The money which France has spent to sustain her military effort inside the country swells the figures of her outlay to immense proportions, but this outlay cannot be considered a dead loss except in such proportion as is spent for steel, explosives, and other material made to be destroyed. Increased prices paid for every commodity, it must be remembered also, has vastly increased the revenues of the French people. Before the war these revenues were 30,000,000,000 to 35,000,000,000 francs. Now they are 50,000,000,000 francs annually. These figures show that, formidable as the war debt may appear at first sight, the problem of its liquidation is not alarming after all.

"France can stand another year of war out of quite as well as she stood the third year. It would be embarrassing for her to pay in gold for everything bought abroad, but this difficulty has been relieved by the credit generosity granted by the United States.

"France will go through the war financially sound, will reconstruct her industries rapidly and her interior situation will be liquidated without causing any economic upheaval. Referring to the situation of other belligerents, M. Gide said:

"I do not think any country will be ruined by the war. All are more or less in the same situation as France. The only real drain upon their resources is what they pay abroad. The best expenditure is that which might be called 'fictions'; that is, the transfer of money from the pockets of some citizens to the pockets of others, a transfer in which a great many new fortunes have been built up but in which the real riches of the country have been left untouched.

"Referring to the economic measures to be taken after the war and to complaints by Germany of an effort by her enemies to ruin her economically, M. Gide said:

"The talk of an economic war after the belligerents lay down their arms has almost subsided. I consider it neither possible nor useful for Germany to be crushed commercially. She will be vanquished on the battlefield, her military power will be crushed, but she will be left free to work out her own economic destiny."

STATE TAXERS ASK ECONOMY AND LOW TAX RATE IN 1917

Greater economy and lower tax rate is urged by the tax commission of Ohio in a letter sent to the budget commission and county auditor. The letter declares that Ohio people already are making patriotic sacrifices and that only in extreme cases of necessity should the tax rate be increased. Attention is called to the fact that tax valuations, this year show an increase over 1916 and that additional revenue will be received without increasing the rate. "The budget commission should impress upon the tax commission the need of economy in order that no additional burdens may be placed upon the people at this time," says the letter.

DETROIT WINNERS RACE IN COLUMBUS WEEK OF AUG. 6TH

During the current week at Detroit, Busy's Lassie won the $10,000 M. and B. trot and Ben All the $5,000 Board of Commerce pace. Each one of these notable victories will race in Columbus week after next during the mid-summer Grand Circuit meeting, that starts on Monday, August 6th, and is to finish on Friday, August 10th. Many more horses have been nominated for the various starts and purses. Cleveland and Detroit meetings of the last two weeks were bumper ones. The Columbus event is expected to be up to the high standard.

Busy's Lassie, a little baby mare, is expected to race in the S. and S. $5,000 stake though she is eligible to the $3000 Neill House stake. Walter Cox no doubt will shoot her into the richest of the two. If she does start in the S. and S., she will compete on Tuesday, August 7th.

Ben All, splendid-looking pacer, did a third heat in the Board of Commerce Detroit fixture in 2:03 1-4. That showed him to have stamina. He ought to "do" fast over the Columbus track, quite a bit better than the one at Detroit. His Columbus engagement is in the Hotel Desher 2:10 stake for $3,000 and it will be raced on Tuesday, August 7th.

FRIENDS REMIND LARSON OF BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

On last Tuesday evening, July 24, about seventy-five of the friends of Ed. M. Larson gave him a complete surprise at his home, 473 West Main street. Those present were mainly from the village and rural districts of Jackson town and Amsterdam, where for three years Mr. Larson has served on Sunday in a ministerial capacity. All brought baskets well filled, and the big supper was a feature. The evening was very pleasantly spent with music and social conversation. At a late hour all left for their homes, wishing a continuance of the most kindly feeling existing between pastor and people.

SUMMER SCHOOL CLOSES AFTER SIX WEEKS OF WORK

The Newark summer school closed yesterday after a successful six weeks' period. The school was in charge of Miss Cora B. Haughey as principal, with 11 teachers, and a kindergarten in charge of Miss Marjorie Lawhead. The kindergarten was independent of the summer school, but closed Friday also. The summer school enrolled about 365 pupils.

GERMANY CALLS FOR GOLD JEWELRY

Amsterdam, July 28.—The daily recruiting public notices printed conspicuously here in German newspapers entreating Germans to aid the fatherland by giving it their gold and jewelry is productive of insufficient results. The Weser Zeitung of Bremen publishes a renewal of the appeal complaining especially that the well-to-do public still fails to realize the situation and that all gold must be handed in.

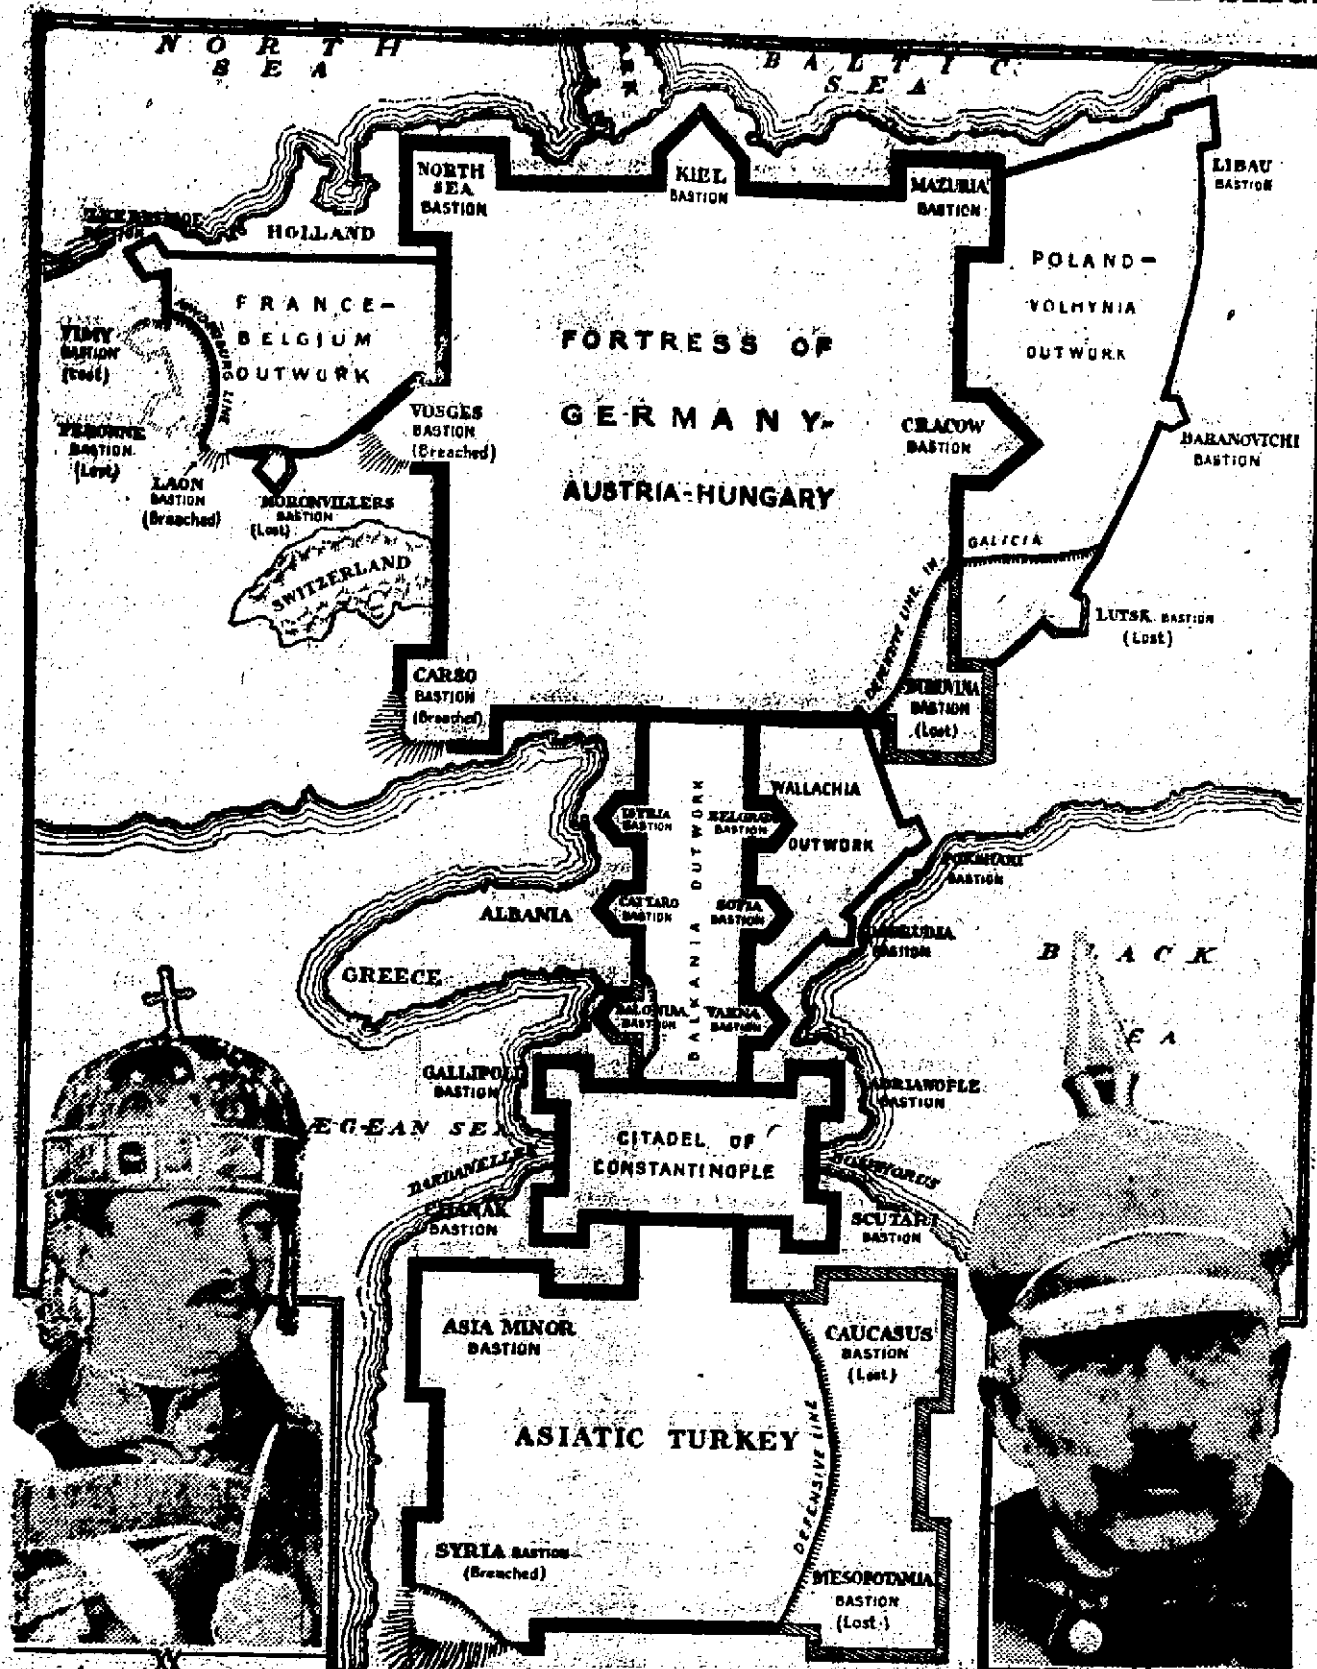

The newspaper makes examples of members of the German imperial and royal princely houses sacrificing their gold and jewelry and sends competent authorities calculate that three to four hundred million coins are being hoarded in Germany while the value of gold ornaments is estimated at a billion marks.

CENTRAL POWERS MAY BE LIKENED TO FORTRESS UNDER SIEGE

Emperor Charles of Austria (left), Kaiser Wilhelm and diagrammatic view of the Germanic fortress. The Austro-Germanic military position is depicted as two fortresses, Austria-Germany and Turkey, connected by a barbed wire. Across the barbed wire stands Constantinople, the Dardanelles and Bosphorus, and preventing communication between the eastern and western allies. The territory seized by treaty or conquest is shown as three networks. Two of these are now considerably shattered.

MILITARY AND ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IN FRANCE AND ENGLAND ARE IMPROVED; CONDITIONS IN RUSSIA THE ONLY FLY IN THE OINTMENT

The third year of the world war closes with the fortunes of conflict favoring the entente, except for the uncertainty as to the outcome of the Russian situation.

The central powers sustained momentous setbacks, both military and political, during the twelve months. On the western front in Europe the Entente found themselves on the defensive at the advent of the fourth year. They fight on lines newly established after forced retreatment from terrain, which they had won in earlier days at a tremendous sacrifice.

Meanwhile new enemy powers, notably the United States, have been drawn in by the central powers and progress toward the achievement of the ultimate aim of the entente and its allies has been furthered by political disturbance which will remain memorable in the history of all times.

Chief among these are the fall of two crowned heads—Nicholas of Russia, and Constantine of Greece. In Russia autocracy has given way to a republic. In Greece a kingdom remains, but not a pro-Tentonic one, entente pressure having won supremacy in this part of the Balkans.

Political events within the German and Austrian empires, featured by the fall of Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, have led to open discussions of peace in the German reichstag as the fourth year dawns.

In Great Britain, the third year closed with Winston Spencer Churchill, former first lord of the admiralty, returned to the cabinet with the portfolio of minister of munitions.

Portugal and Rumania threw in their fortunes with the entente shortly after the third year began. The United States entered in April, followed by Cuba and Liberia. Panama pledged the United States her aid in defending the Panama canal. Costa Rica put her naval bases at her disposal. China, Bolivia, Guatemala and Brazil severed diplomatic relations with Germany. Uruguay expressed her sympathy for the United States. Late in July, Siam entered the war against the central powers.

Three new nations were born during the year. Poland was created a kingdom under German and Austrian direction. In Mecca the Arabians overthrew Turkish rule and declared independence. In the Balkans, liberty was restored to Albania, which was established as a republic under Italian political protection and with French military aid.

An estimate made two months before the end of the third year, voiced by Arthur Henderson at the British war council—placed the number of men killed at 7,000,000 since August, 1914. French general headquarters recently estimated 1,500,000 Germans had been killed up to March 1. Mr. Henderson estimated the total casualties at more than 45,000,000.

The first and second American contingents of troops landed in France on June 26 and 27.

Nearly 10,000,000 Americans of military age registered on June 5 under the selective draft law, and from these are being selected the men who will comprise the great army contingents which America is planning to send to Europe.

In cementing America's association with the nations now here allies, numerous exchanges of missions were arranged. France, Great Britain, Italy, Belgium, Russia and other entente belligerents sent delegations to the United States as a token of friendship and solidarity. The United States sent missions to Russia and other countries.

Fighting on the western front during the third year of the war may roughly be divided into six phases—two in the latter part of 1916 before winter called a halt; and four after the entente offensive was resumed in the early spring.

At the close of the second year the Germans were still unwilling to centering on Verdun. After August 3, 1916 the French gained the ascendancy, culminating in the re-taking of Douaumont and Fort Vaux, with thousands of prisoners and many guns. By November the French had once more come into possession of the complete circle of the Verdun defenses.

The second phase dates back to the commencement of the Franco-British offensive—the first Battle of the Somme—in July of 1916. By mid-September this had reached such proportions that the Germans were credited with bringing up seven new divisions against the British and five against the French. It was estimated that 38 German divisions, or, based on the strength of those German units at that period 700,000 men, opposed the British and French on this 24-mile front. In this battle the British air supremacy became dominant. By November the British and French had taken St. Pierre-Divion, Beaumont-Hamel and Beaucourt and had penetrated German positions for a depth of six miles.

In the spring, the Germans, anticipating a resumption of the Somme operations, began what has become known as the "Hindenburg victorious retreat" to newly-established German lines. In this second battle of the Somme, Douaumont, Tiers, Peronne, Nesle, Favielle, Gricourt, Vaux, Roye, Tergnier, Ham and hundreds of other positions were lost by the Germans. In an evacuation which French critics regard as memorial

GERMAN PEOPLE MUST FREE THEMSELVES FROM OPPRESSION IF THEY WANT PEACE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Paris, July 28.—France begins the fourth year of the war in calm confidence and determination, expressed today by Premier Alexander F. Ribot in these words:

"Until the people with whom we are at war finally awaken and free themselves from the detestable regime that oppresses them, nothing will stop the allies in their effort that will bring back peace to the world by the triumph of their arms."

At the request of the Associated Press, the premier wrote:

"The entry of the United States into the conflict that is pending in the world was the capital event of the third year of the war. It was welcomed with enthusiasm by the allied people. They know what may be the effort of the American soldiers who have come to fight by their side."

"That event resounded mightily throughout the entire world. Certain Latin-American states where France received touching marks of sympathy on the duty of her national fate already have shown, by breaking off relations with Germany, that they had a clear vision of the German peril."

"Greece, wrenched from the intrigues of a foreign faction, is preparing to send fresh contingents to fight with us on the Macedonian front. The cause of national liberty in all countries is finding more ardent advocates who are heard with increasing attention."

"The enemy, disappointed in his insensate hope of stopping ocean navigation, disillusioned in his effort to sap the courage of the allies by false offers of peace, can do no more than to seek to envelop the origins of his criminal enterprise in a veil of untruth."

"May the peoples with whom we are at war finally awaken and free themselves from the detestable regime that oppresses them. Until then nothing will stop the allies in their effort that will bring back peace to the world by triumph of their arms."

the third time in the war. These operations forced the Austro-Germans to relinquish lines they had held throughout the winter of 1915-1916.

The Halicz bridgehead fell in September, but the subsequent advance on Lemberg was not prosecuted because the plight of Rumania demanded the transfer of Russian troops to aid their Balkan ally.

After the Russian Revolution, the Russians made a feint to advance on Pinsk, to cover the actual operations resumed in July against Lemberg. This latter front extended 18 1-2 miles. Known as "Rominits July First," these troops, reinforced by the consciousness of political liberty, confounded German military prophets by the magnitude and extent of their offensive.

Led by Alexander Kerensky, minister of war, and observed by American army officers, the "Regiments July First" forced the Germans to evacuate Brzezany, and they captured many important positions, including terrain, west and south of Halicz town and strongly defended positions northwest of Stanislaw. On July 11 Halicz was taken, thus smashing the Austro-German front between Brzezany and the Carpathians.

The Russian operation broadened by mid-July so that it extended from the Gulf of Riga to the Rumanian front, a distance of 800 miles. The Germans were reported to be rushing troops from the Italian and French fronts. Widespread enthusiasm was created throughout Russia, and the moral effect on the other Entente powers was tremendous.

Before the third year closed, however, Russia's offensive suffered a collapse. German spies, anarchists, peace fanatics and other agitators succeeded in destroying the morale of some of the Russian troops in Galicia, here a retreat became necessary when unit after unit refused to obey orders.

Brzezany, Halicz, Tarnopol, Stanislaw and Kalona were lost, together with all the remaining ground gained during the offensive. The Russians surrendered many prisoners, heavy guns and an abundance of supplies and ammunition.

The death penalty was invoked as a check to further insubordinations and the provisional government introduced "blood front" in an effort to avert disaster.

In the Vilna region there was little disaffection among the Russian troops.

Italy, declaring war against Germany on August 28, began a more vigorous prosecution of her earlier offensive against Austria.

With dramatic swiftness the Third Army, under the Duke of Aosta, captured Gorizia, hitler considered impregnable. By January 1 the Italians had captured 1,200 square miles.

After a winter of artillery duels, Italy resumed her offensive on the Carso front in the campaign toward Trieste. Within a month the Austrian lines were broken from Castagnavizza to the sea. Italy inflicted losses of 85,000 on the Austrians and suffered heavily herself. Austria hurried reinforcements from the Russian front.

In the Trentino the Italians took the offensive in June and after terrific fighting captured the Austrian positions on Mount Ortigara and Agnello pass. These they were forced to relinquish, however, in the face of Austrian counter-attacks.

In the Balkans the military development saw the occupation of Rumania by the Teutons—a gain of great economic value because of the oil and grain fields. The Rumanian Army, reformed, is co-operating with the Russians, and as the year closes they were engaged in a heavy offensive against the Austro-Germans, Turks and Bulgarians.

Bulgaria won successes of moderate importance, including the capture of the Grecian port of Kavala. The newly-equipped Serbian army arrived at Saloniki in August and began an offensive which won Ostrovo, on the road to Monastir. This offensive, resumed in the spring with the co-operation of entente and Venizelist troops, won Monastir and Corva.

In Greece the military moves of the entente forces included a blockade of Greece and temporary French occupation of Athens.

A brilliant British campaign in Mesopotamia accomplished the capture of Kut-el-Amara, in February; and of Bagdad, terminus of the Baghdad-Bagdad railway, in March.

The capture of Bagdad had a deep moral effect in the Orient, particularly in Arabia, where many natives revolted from Turkish rule.

Russians operating in Persia took Hamadan, and further north, in Turkish Armenia, Russians captured Van.

In the Holy Land the British opened a new era in the history of the East. Their advance, has carried them nearly to Gaza. Their objective is Jerusalem, which the Turks were reported in June to have partly evacuated.

Except for submarine operations, naval writers have found little to engage their attention during the past year.

Germany continued to rely on U-boats. This policy led to unrestricted warfare which drew the United States into the conflict.

U-boats destroyed an estimated gross tonnage of more than 400,000 during the year. This included 2,000,000 flying the British flag sunk from Feb. 25 to July 1.

America's destroyer flotilla arrived in British waters in May, without the loss of a ship or a man. American warships conveyed the first American troops to France.

Two submarine attacks were made on the transports. At least one U-boat was sunk. American warships took over from British and French vessels the patrol of American coasts. Brazil added her navy to ours in South American waters.

Today's announcement was made that still another contingent of American troops had landed safely in France.

Cities from Bagdad to London have been subjected to raids, notable attacks being those by German Zeppelins and airplanes on London, in five attacks on England in May, June and July 29th, persons were killed and 863 injured.

DRIVE FOR TICKETS STARTS ON MONDAY WOMEN WILL HELP

The big drive on sale of tickets for the Chautauqua will begin at 8 o'clock Monday morning, when 15 teams of business and professional men will meet at the Chamber of Commerce, obtain their prospects, and call upon them. The drive is under the direction of the civic bureau and it is the expectation to cover the territory in two hours.

At the same time, women of the Federation of Women's Clubs are making a similar drive. They met at the Chamber of Commerce Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Henry S. Fleck, vice president, as chairwoman, and mapped out their campaign to dispose of their portion of the tickets. They began their sales Saturday and expects to conclude Monday.

The civic bureau of the chamber has acted as guarantor of the Chautauqua, and it is necessary to sell 500 adult tickets at $2 each to meet the expenses. It is an educational, community affair, and because of the splendid program provided, it is of greater interest than ever.

The features relating to the war which have been added are very timely.

A. S. Mitchell, chairman of the ticket campaign, urges those who have pledged their services to report at the Chamber of Commerce promptly at 8 o'clock Monday morning, so that an early start may be made and the workers may get back to their own affairs with the least loss of time.

Pastors of the various churches are urged to make some announcement to their congregations tomorrow and ask them to co-operate in making the Chautauqua a success.

The Newark Chautauqua will open this city a series of delightful entertainments, music, lectures, dramas, erate cost. The Chautauqua this season is to be centrally located on the lot that was recently occupied by the Bromley tabernacle and the Rotary exposition.

The sale of 750 season tickets guaranteed for two or three years been assured by the civic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce members of which assisted by club women will on Monday undertake to dispose of assist materially in the community uplift. The Chautauqua is sure to succeed.

A HOME GUARD.

The withdrawal of the militia leaves both the local communities and the state without sufficient protection unless a Home Guard is organized. In some places organizations are being formed, weekly drills are taking place and steps are being taken to be of service.

The Akron Home Guard of which George P. Atwater is colonel in command, was perhaps the first to be organized. A meeting was held April 3 at which 27 men were present.
They were sworn in by the mayor and each was instructed to enlist a platoon of 24 citizens for active service. The next day the lieutenants mustered their men and the mayor administered the oath. Weekly drills commenced at once. Ten companies of four platoons each having been organized and a captain has been elected for each company.
The guard is now protecting the city's water system, 16 men being on duty continually and the guard is in training to render such other service as may be required. Each active member of the Home Guard, unless excused by his lieutenant, is expected to fulfill the following duties:

- (1) To pay $1.00 a month membership dues.
- (2) To attend the appointed drills and reviews.
- (3) To perform one day's service at Camp Akron.
- (4) To respond to emergency calls when issued by the Mayor of Akron, the Commanding Officer of the Home Guard, or by the Captain of his Company.

FRANCE POINTS WAY.

France is again pointing the way to wisdom for this country. It is not so long ago that prejudice against England was as strong in France as it ever has been in America, but the French have learned the lesson of this war and know now who may bring about peace when it comes to raising the forces in favor of liberty and justice. Miss Gertrude Lynch, the special correspondent of The Vigilante in France, gives this bit to show the change that has come over France:

"I heard a French woman say when the disaster of Neuve Chapelle first became known. 'Well, of course Tommy had to stop and have his cup of tea.' Such a comment would not be made today, for Tommy of the trenches and the poilu are real friends. They go arm-in-arm

FACTS ABOUT OUR NAVY.

(By Lieutenant Fitzhugh Green.)

(Lieutenant Fitzhugh Green of the U. S. S. Texas is one of our naval officers who is not content to do merely his duty as such. That is why he writes articles to inspire interest in the work of the navy and to keep warm our patriotism. A true patriot, he is turning out poems, stories, and exhortations in his spare time. His naval service includes two years with the fastest north Crocker land expedition in which he acquitted himself with distinction.)

A 14-inch gun is built up from eight or ten hoops or steel tubes.
Each is turned to an exact fit less several thousandths of an inch, then heated red until expansion permits it to be drawn on. It cools and adds strength not only by its thickness but by the grip of its shrinking.

The first or inner tube has helical grooves to give rotation to the shell just as in any sporting rifle. Tremendous firing pressures between fifteen and twenty tons per square inch combined with acid gases and other products of explosion cause erosion or wearing away and pitting of the grooves. Inner tubes must be renewed periodically. The life of the gun, so-called, is about 150 shots.
Since frequent target practices are held few years elapse before the guns must be taken ashore and re-tubed. The total cost of retubing a 14-inch gun is in the neighborhood of $25,000.

Besides the inner erosion constant shocks of explosion crystallize the whole steel structure. Crystallization of metal may be likened to the drying of cheese. At first the mass is relatively tough and elastic. After the heavy punishment of protracted firing gun tubes weaken and become brittle. Microscopic examination reveals contraction and disintegration of metal particles just as cracks and crumbly sections occur in a cheese. Further use of the gun is dangerous. Sometimes the crystallized state is reached sooner than was expected. The guns crack or burst. On the Michigan fifteen feet of a 12-inch gun broke off and fell on deck. On the next load the gun captain, having opened the breech to report, "bore clear," shouted
"There ain't no bore!" Fortunately no one was killed.

The charge of a 14-inch gun is 385 pounds of smokeless powder put up in four silk-linen bags. The back end of each bag is painted red and contains about four ounces of black powder called the ignition charge. A brass primer similar to a rifle cartridge except it has no bullet, ignites the black powder which in turn sets fire to the smokeless powder. Contrary to popular belief there is no real explosion but a progressive burning of enormous rapidity. Vast volumes of gas at high temperature and pressure are produced, forcing the projectile out.

A 14-inch shell weighs 1400 pounds, is five feet long, and contains a bursting charge. Twelve strong men lift one with difficulty.
Yet from the gun it can sink a battle-ship 12 miles away. It travels at the rate of 2600 feet a second or a mile every two seconds. On striking it expends an energy of 65,687 foot-tons, or enough to transport a load of two tons to twice the height of Mt. Everest.

DRASTIC CORRECTIVES.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

No axiom is more familiar than that desperate ills demand drastic remedies. It holds true in war as well as in peace.
Whether the report is confirmed or later denied that a whole division of mutinous Russian troops have been slain by their compatriots in punishment for their late traitorous conduct, it is not beyond belief that such a penalty might be visited upon the guilty. Nor would the infliction of such a penalty, cruel as it may seem at first, be generally deemed too severe to fit the crime.

The Russian mutiny, starting with a comparatively few regiments, has jeopardized the allies' cause in the east. It may demand a recasting of the lines of battle throughout Europe. In fact, the Russian retreat may prolong the war many months, and a prolongation of the conflict few months would mean the needless sacrifice of far more lives than compose an army division.

War is harsh, and the penalties exact of those who through mutiny or treason undermine the cause they are sworn to uphold must of necessity be harsh. Brutal as the statement may seem, the Russian mutineers who have brought this great disaster upon their country and their country's allies deserve no kindlier treatment than the dispatches say has been visited upon them.

Discipline must be maintained, be the instrument what it may. The wine of Russia's new freedom needs tempering with iron, even if it takes a temporary dictatorship to administer it.

Did You Know
That the first public pleasure

Central Park? It extends from 59th proposed by A. J. Downing in 1850.

It was planned by Messrs. Fred-

April 21, 1858. The park is one-half mile wide and two and one-half miles long, being a perfect parallelosituated on the east side of the Park on 82nd street. It was incorporated by the legislature of New of $500,000 was placed at the disposal of the commission. The present building was opened March 30,

A SIMPLE STEAM STERILIZER

FOR FARM DAIRY UTENSILS, EXHIBITED BY BOARD OF HEALTH.

In compliance with a request of the federal government, our local health chief, Dr. Knauss, will next week place on exhibition at our factory a sterilizer for dairy utensils.

This little contrivance is evidently rated by the government to be an important addition to the equipment of the modern dairy farm. Clean sterile pans and buckets add tremendously to the purity of milk production.

This sterilizer will be exhibited entirely under the jurisdiction of the health chief Dr. Knauss. It may be seen any day from July 23 to 30, inclusive, at our factory in Elmwood Court.

Call between the hours of 7 to 9 a. m. and 3 to 5 p. m.

We wish to join with the authorities in extending a most cordial invitation to everyone interested in milk to call and see this device. Milk producers in particular should be interested in this.

NEWARK SOLDIERS SHOT IN THE ARM
---WITH VACCINE

Some of the less pleasant features of the life of a soldier were experienced this week by Newark boys in Co. B, Fourth Ohio Infantry in camp at Camp Karb, State Fair grounds, Columbus, according to a letter to the Advocate. The boys were inoculated for the prevention of smallpox and typhoid and as both arms were "shot" they were in a peck of trouble. They carried their arms in slings as though they were broken. Frank E. M. Temple already has been entered into the federal service and has been assigned to clerical duty with the federal examining officers. He will be on duty at Cardington, London, Delaware, Lancaster and Greenfield before the work is finished. None of the boys are kicking. All enjoy the camp life and are thriving on it.

NEWARK BOY TO GO TO FRANCE TO AID
IN RAILROAD WORK

One more Newark boy soon will be doing his part in France to "make the world safe for democracy." Lytle E. Johnson, who recently joined the 17th regiment, U. S. engineers, who will take up the task of rebuilding French railroads was with the regiment which paraded the streets of Atlanta, where the regiment is in camp, on the occasion of its farwell appearance. The regiment soon will leave for an Atlantic port to go to France. Mail to Mr. Johnson should be addressed to him, care Co. F, 17th Regiment Engineers, Washington, D. C. No mail is directed to the military camps in France.

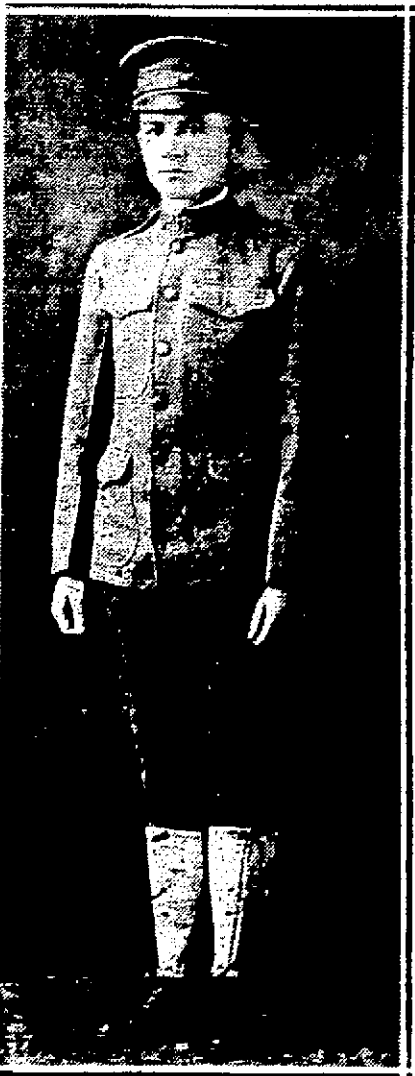

CONFERS IN VIENNA

Berlin, July 26, via London, July 28.—The Tageblatt learns that Chancellor Michaelis will leave for Vienna for the purpose of meeting Emperor Charles and making the acquaintance of Viennese governmental circles.

This Newark Boy
Studies Soldiering

When Matthew McBride made up his mind to help Uncle Sam wallop the Kaiser he did so after deliberate meditation. He had read considerably upon the subject and decided that it was time to act and act firmly. He enlisted before the blare of the trumpet and shout of orator had spread over the land. That was four months ago.

Having enlisted, he was not satisfied with merely signing his name on the dotted line and accepting Uncle Sam's uniform and provender. He determined to make a serious study of the business of war. When he was not drilling in the dust and heat,

MATTHEW MCBRIDE
Co. D, 36th U. S. Regulars

he was pouring over war manuals and trying to learn how he could render the best service to Uncle Sam. He did not do it with any idea of getting a soft berth as an officer but because he conscientiously believed that a soldier should study his work the same as a man would on any other job. And he's been studying right along while stationed with Co. D, 36th Infantry at Fort Snelling, Minn. And now he is on the muster roll as first class private, which means that he has been recommended for promotion to the position of corporal. And that is after only four months of the life as a soldier. If his advancement is as rapid throughout his enlistment he will be wearing shoulder straps before his term of enlistment expires. McBride is a son of Mrs. John Fitzpatrick, 23 Cottage street, this city. While living in Newark he made his home with his sister, Mrs. John F. Selby, 22 Cottage street. Another sister, Helen McBride also lives here. He was employed at the Halsey factory before becoming a "Sammy."

MAY DRAFT ALIENS TOO

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, July 28.—Favorable report on Senator Chamberlain's resolution to empower the government to draft alien citizens of countries now at war against Germany but living in this country, was agreed on yesterday by the senate military committee. Senator Chamberlain received a letter from Secretary Baker saying that he would not recommend favorable action on the resolution but would not oppose its passage.

Amusements

ALHAMBRA.
Sunday.
The high cost of living isn't worrying Marguerite Clark much. The little Essany star had the foresight to purchase a large quantity of food in Michigan. She now has it stored up in a provision written into the contract that she can get all the fresh eggs, butter and candies she wants and, if she chooses, can live there. The latter prerogative, however, is far from realization for Miss Clark is one of the busiest stars at Essany. Her latest feature is "The Night Workers," a drama of night life in the cities.

Munday and Tuesday.
Mary Miles Minter, premiere character of the film, who has a long list of credit as the youngest emotional star on the American photodramatic stage, has a splendid background in her latest Mutual-American production, "Periwinkle." The play is a bit of "rough coast" with "Lovey Mary" in oilskins and sou'wester, amid the turmoil of excitement that characterizes a coasting station when there is a ship on the rocks.

AUDITORIUM.
"Bitter Truth."
A theme of revenge, conceived in the bitterness of a moment of sorrow, keeping dominant throughout the long term of years, and finally spending its force only after it is about to accomplish its purpose, is the interest in the new Virginia Pearson picture, "Bitter Truth." Anne, the part which Miss Pearson portrays, is an inhabitant of Blossom street. Everyone who knows the filth of the East Side and she has her typical lover, Jimmy Graves, a crook, who turns up with her in the picture.

Marguerite Clark.
Manager Geo. Fenberg of the Auditorium always on the job now comes forth with a new twist in being Marguerite Clark in repertoire.

When the great actors or actresses on the stage have made a name and are entitled to be called stars they devote a season or portion of their time to appearing in a repertoire of the plays in which they have made their name. Marguerite Clark has made her name in the movies and is one of the great stars of the silent screen, therefore the Auditorium management, after a lot of telephone calls, passing of letters, etc., has arranged with the Paramount picture company to show Miss Clark every day of next week with a different play each day. On Monday she will be seen in "The Bitter Truth," which she devoted to Tuesday, "Molly Make Believe" will be screened with a cast of Paramount stars.

On Wednesday, "Mice and Men," Thursday, "Out of the Drift," Friday, "Little Lady Eileen," Saturday, "The Great Escape." This will be Miss Clark's last appearance in Newark in what is called the regular program, for early in September she will be seen at the Auditorium in Sir Arthur Wing Pinero's great stage success, "The Amazons." This will be the completion of the greatest Paramount picture produced.

Auditorium Orchestra.
The Auditorium orchestra with three new soloists will commence to render exquisite music at this playhouse beginning tomorrow afternoon. The orchestra has charge and will be found at the piano, Carl Nutter at the drums, Fred Hawkins, saxophone and Sig. Tellgrine violinist. A special musical program will be heard at this theater tomorrow in connection with Virginia Pearson in "Bitter Truth," which comedy, "A Candy Jag," with John and Emma Ray.

Extra Features.
In connection with Marguerite Clark's repertoire week, that Manager Geo. Fenberg will offer at the Auditorium next week, at which time Miss Clark will be screened in a different photoplay each day, extra added features will be seen during the week. On Monday the Pathe News Weekly with events of the entire world, Wednesday "Pathe News," which features the food and war emergency council of the baking industry today gave notice that the $2 minimum for wheat proposed by the bill will permit of no reduction in the present prices of bread.

WON'T TRANSFER PRISONERS.
Berlin, July 28, via London.—It is officially announced that the German government has been informed that no negotiations are in progress with the United States for the purpose of transferring German war prisoners from England to America.

Coming Attractions.
J. Maurice Rike, special representative of the Paramount Pictures corporation spent the past two days in Newark conferring with Manager Geo. M. Fenberg of the Auditorium on the subject of the largest and greatest single contract for showing of pictures ever arranged for in the city of Newark. This program will be inaugurated at the Auditorium the first week in September. The following stars will be seen exclusively at the Auditorium: Marguerite Clark, Mary Pickford, Billie Burke, Douglas Fairbanks, Pauline Frederick, Geraldine Farrar, Lina Cavalieri. All the pictures placed on the market by Davis W. Griffith. Three pictures by Madame Petrova, Julian Eltinge, Jack and Louise Hart, Carole Martin, Sessue Kayakawa, Wallace Reid. Pictures made by Cecil B. DeMille, Eileen Ferguson, William Hart. Pictures produced by Thomas H. Ince: George M. Cohan. The entire contract runs considerably over $20,000 on the year and is said to be the largest motion picture contract ever executed for a city the size of Newark. Miss Clark will be seen for her first picture in a play that for years has been a gold mine for its owners on the legitimate stage. "The Amazons," by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero. Billie Burke's first picture will be "The Mysterious Miss Terry." Miss Frederick's first feature being "The Show Down," by Victor Turnbull.

Destiny shapes our ends, so any man can see his finish.

RUSS SITUATION IS IMPROVED SAYS
NEWS DISPATCHES

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, July 28.—Dispatches from Petrograd dealing with the military and political situation concur that Petrograd itself is outwardly calmer than it has been for months, which is attributed to Premier Kerensky's strong repressive measures including the disarming of rioters and mutineers. Among the arrested extremists is said to be Madame Kollontai who was taken into custody at Torna, Finland, while returning from Stockholm.

The ministry of justice is said to have issued a statement that it has proof that Nikolai Lenin, the Radical Socialist and two of his associates, Zinoviev and Kamenoff, were concerned in a German plot against Russia. None of the correspondents, however, mentions the arrest of Lenin.

The whole internal situation, however, is said to show signs of improvement and according to the Times' Odessa correspondent it is generally recognized that the various domestic problems must now await the end of the war for solution. On the other hand the correspondent records the victory of the extremists in the recent re-election of the local executive of the council of workmen's and soldiers' delegates. A dispatch from Petrograd to the Daily News attributes the catastrophe in the southwest front entirely to extremist influences and says those troops who behaved worse than others had received the "most reinforcements from Petrograd."

The main argument whereby the extremists exerted their influence is, says the correspondent, the absence of an agreement making it clear to soldiers that Germany is responsible for the continuance of the war. Another one of the pleas is that the soldiers' real enemy is behind him in the shape of the bourgeois. These and similar arguments so influenced the men that although they greatly outnumbered the enemy, many regiments moved off, another follows, and there begins a movement eastward which destroys communications and interrupts supplies to troops who have tried to stick to their positions so that these troops are forced to join the general stream.

Thus far the retreaters do not show any sign or intention of stopping on a line. The splendid positions of General Brusiloff's line north and west of Tarnopol have been thrown away. It can hardly be called a German victory since it is not the result of German pressure. If the Germans had been in great force the retreat of the southern army would have long ago been cut off but it is probable the Germans themselves are somewhat disconcerted by the magnitude of the task before them.

With insufficient troops, an advance on this scale is a difficult operation and German communication cannot be established in a moment over such a wide area. A halt on the part of the enemy caused by fatigue and hunger would not be surprising. This might give the Russians time to rest and time for action among the soldiery by the exposure of the extremists. Let them once realize, says the correspondent, that the extremists have tricked them and the same troops who voluntarily retired today will voluntarily advance.

The special swimming classes each day for the past two weeks have been a real success. Thirty-one boys took lessons. The ones who have not yet learned the art of swimming will be given another week of lessons.

Eighteen of the cadets under the direction of Physical Director Chas. Allen spent Tuesday night in camp on the Hartshorn farm on the Granville road. They slept under up tents and enjoyed their own cooking. They say they found a good swimming hole.

The employed officers of the association are busy working out the plans for the work this fall in the absence of the general secretary. The basement rooms are being prepared to make room for the increase in membership which is expected following last year's increase. Gymnasium classes will start about the first of October.

Chas. F. Lender of Columbus, who will be acting executive secretary in the absence of the general secretary, made the association a visit today and began to get acquainted with the work. He will take up his duties here about September 1st.

Letters were received from two of the "Y. M." boys in training at Ft. Benj. Harrison. Geo. Hazlett and Jasper Hurt are both enjoying their life in the service. Hurt has recently been promoted to the rank of a first class private. Both want to be remembered to their friends as they have no time to write to all.

Member Calvin Hazlett is now busy getting his equipment in order to sail for India about August 15th. He will sail from Vancouver, going via the Pacific route.

Notices have been sent out of the payment due on war work fund pledges. The local members of the state council are pleased with the ready response and wish to thank the contributors for this cooperation.

One husk had was sent to the farm this week. He said that he was raised on the farm and "the farm for him." He went to work for Mr. Bolt on the Hebron road. Several other boys were directed to temporary work this week.

FARMERS! DOES
THIS INTEREST YOU?
